CERTIFICATE THAT THE DIVORCE ORDER HAS TAKEN EFFECT

I certify that the divorce order made in relation to the application of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] took effect on the ninth day of November 2018, thereby terminating the marriage between [REDACTED]

By the Court

Registrar

NOTES:

1. If a party to the marriage proposes to make an application to a court exercising jurisdiction under the Family Law Act 1975 as to property or as to the maintenance of that party, such application must be made within 12 months from the date upon which this divorce order takes effect. After that time such an application cannot be made without first obtaining the leave of the court to do so.
2. A divorce order which has taken effect may revoke, or otherwise affect the operation of, the Will of a party. Parties should seek legal advice about their position under the law of the State or Territory concerned.
3. A party to a marriage who marries again before this divorce order takes effect (unless the other party has died) commits the offence of bigamy.
4. If, before this divorce order takes effect, it comes to the notice of a party to the marriage that the other party has died, he or she should file an affidavit or certificate in the office of the court giving particulars of the date and place of death.
